

Developing knowledge with IIRSM

Delivered by industry leaders, our Professional Development Webinars help participants to improve their knowledge, influence and impact, both personally and professionally.

Free of charge for IIRSM members, the webinars are grouped into four series*:

- Career support – focusing on all aspects of career development
- Technical risk – in-depth consideration of a relevant risk management topic

- Leadership behaviours – skills and attributes needed to be a successful leader, getting the best out of ourselves and others
- Business competencies – how we work with others within and beyond our organisation effectively

Sponsor one of our four webinar series for 12 months: £3,000

Sponsor all four series for 12 months: £10,000

Why sponsor our webinars?

- Have your say on the topics and speakers within your chosen webinar series.
- All webinars within the sponsored series to be credited as 'sponsored by' your organisation.
- Logo and sponsor mention across communications channels pre- and post-event, including:
 - › Event listings on website
 - › Event listings in newsletters and social media
 - › Event confirmations and reminders
 - › Post-event follow ups
 - › Social media promotion
 - › On the live webinar platform.
- Free places for your contacts to attend any webinar within the series, regardless of IIRSM membership status.
- Special mention of thanks during the welcome and introduction of all webinars within your chosen series.
- Opportunity to provide a relevant resource for each webinar within your series that will be distributed to all attendees either before or after the event.

*An average IIRSM series consists of four webinars per series per year.
